Disinterested Third Party

Division of Insurance 3 CCR 702-1 Administrative Procedures Amended Regulation 1-2-4, Section 5 (C.)(1)(d.) A self-study or computer-based course must be an approved course followed by a monitored competency examination administered by a disinterested third party. For the purposes of this subparagraph, a disinterested third party is someone who is not:

- (i.) a minor;
- (ii.) a relative of the producer;
- (iii.) the immediate supervisor of the producer; or
- (iv.) a person with an economic or other interest in assuring the successful outcome of the examination; Note: Being employed by the same company or working for the same employer does not mean a person has 'an economic or other direct interest in assuring the successful outcome of the examination.' For example, co-employees or co-workers of the producer taking the competency examinations may administer the examination so long as the other requirements of this subparagraph are met and such co-employee or co-worker does not work on a regular basis with the producer in a marketing or sales capacity.

I hereby certify that I personally observed the above named student during the completion of this online examination and also observed that the student received no outside assistance in completing the examination.
